

RemaxWorld Expo 2026

The Largest Printer and Imaging Supplies Expo

We have over 400 exhibitors showcasing their products and services at the Expo, and we invite you to come and meet some of them today. Moreover, every week, we will update the portfolios of more exhibitors, so please keep checking back for new business opportunities.

The RemaxWorld Expo has been held annually since 2007 in Zhuhai, China, providing global buyers and suppliers with an international, networking & cooperation platform.

This year, the event will be held from October 15-17 at the Zhuhai International Convention and Exhibition Center.

The exhibition will include printing/copying equipment, printer/copier consumables, paper, other office supplies, software systems and automated office solutions.

To this end, the event has already attracted more than 400 exhibitors with more than 17,000 professional buyers expected to attend this year.
